VOCene #18 2005/2006-March 8, 2005

Well, we are only at eighteen and after looking at the 36 VOCene's from last year; I was for a brief moment, concerned about quantity, but alas the quality vs quantity argument surfaced and the former has won out, or at least I hope. I'll leave that up to you to decide. Things are slowly winding down, people are planning ski trips for the spring, making summer work plans, and working hard to finish the school year strong. Go hard. However the exec at the VOC are, somehow, managing to continue to keep focused on bringing the VOC year to a suitable close. Nice work.
