I. Upcoming Events and Trips

- 1) HSCT - SP - September 12th to 13th

What can that mysterious trip name possibly mean? It means the Howe Sound Crest Trail - Self Propelled. The idea is to hike the HSCT entirely self-propelled, approaching it by bicycle. Groups will start from either end of the trail and do a bike lock key swap mid way.

- 2) Tophino - September 12th to 13th

Some people are heading to Tophino to try and do some surfing. If you feel like joining and can get yourself up there (or organize a ride), let Veronika know.

It is time to get excited about this years glacier school. Glacier school is a classic VOC instructional trip, where you can expect to learn how to safely travel on glaciers and what to do when things go wrong. Everyone who have previous camping and backpacking experience can join.
